I have fought the good fight
I have finished the race;
I have kept the faith...
2 Timothy 4: 7-8

Bev C. ("Mr. Varsity") Mahon, 86, passed away peacefully on Friday, March 27, 2009.

He was born in Omaha, Neb. on Oct. 21, 1922 to Elton C. and Georgia G. (Hillard) Mahon. He grew up in Monroe, Iowa and graduated from Roosevelt High School in Des Moines.

He attended Stanford University and served as a cryptographer with a B-29 outfit on Tinian Island in World War II. On May 13, 1950 he married the love of his life, Zora Fini.

His interest in movies as a youngster led to a life-long passion in the motion picture business for 78 years. He had worked for National Screen, Paramount Pictures and owned and operated theatres in Pella; Omaha, Neb.; Sioux City and Des Moines.

He is survived by his wife of 58 years, Zora; daughters, Denise (Robert Newton) and Michele Mahon; sons Mike and Greg; and favorite grandchild, Celeste, who all reside in West Des Moines.

Bev was a hard-working person who will be most remembered for his wit and kindness. He had a wealth of faith expressed not so much by words but by actions. A warm host, he will be missed, but not forgotten, by all who were fortunate enough to cross his path.

Visitation will be from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. followed by a vigil on Wednesday, April 1, 2009 at Hamilton' on Westown Parkway, 3601 Westown Parkway in West Des Moines.
